

Deborah Ross

U.S Senate

Democratic

Background:

- * Born in Philadelphia
- * Raised in Connecticut
- * Taught at Duke Law School as a senior lecturing fellow
- * Her dad was Marvin F. Koff. And he was a doctor in the U.S Air Force and he was also in the Vietnam War

Experience/Qualifications:

Ross was first elected to the North Carolina General Assembly in 2002 and defeated Phil Jeffreys in 2004 to win a second term.

Candidate's Stance

Gun Control	Healthcare	Education	Crime
Deborah authorizes a person with a concealed handgun permit to carry a concealed handgun in a restaurant.	Everyone should have access to affordable, quality health care.	She thinks that every should have education, therefore she assures to ensure quality education for kids.	On crime, Deborah allows statistical race evidence in death penalty cases.

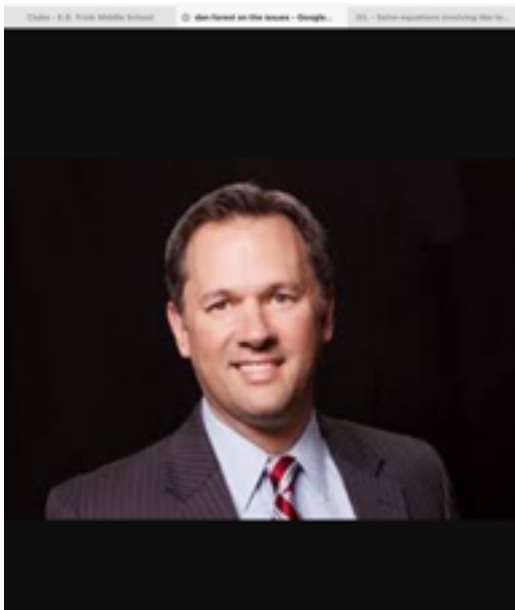

Information Sources:
ontheissues.org, deborahross.com

U.S. House of Representatives (Representing US in N.C.)

H. Powell Dew, Jr. (running against G.K. Butterfield, Republican)

Dew, Jr. is a church pastor and former Lenoir Community College professor. He has Kinston ties as he worked in the city for nearly 15 years. He is also a board member in the Town of Stantonsburg. He believes in conservative values, including the second amendment and an economy without too much government involvement.

Dan forest

Lt gov

Republican

Background:

Forest, the son of Congresswoman Sue Myrick, was raised in Charlotte, NC. He is a former senior partner of Little Diversified Architectural Consulting - one of the state's largest architectural firms.[7]

Experience/Qualifications:

Forest won election on November 6, 2012. It was his first run for office.[4] He finished first in the May 8th primary election, but did not capture more than 40% of the vote. Under North Carolina state law, the top two finishers met in a runoff election, which Forest won. Forest defeated Linda Coleman (D) in the general election.

Candidate's Stance

Government	Taxes	Individualism	Government
Smaller government	Lower taxes	Personal responsibility	Continue separation of powers

Information Sources:
ballotpedia.org, danforest.com

Buck Newton

Attorney General

Republican

Background:

Buck Newton lives in Wilson, NC. He is running for attorney general, his profession is an attorney, and he went to Appalachian State.

Experience/Qualifications

He went to Appalachian and Campbell. He has been a state senator since 2010.

Candidate's Stance

Criminals	Save money	Stand Up to Washington Dc.	Protect Constitutional Values
Toughen penalties against criminals	Offers tax relief	He will support the tenth amendment	He wants us to keep our guns

